

SPARKMAN & STEPHENS ASSOCIATION UK & IRELAND

AGM 2011

You are invited to The AGM Weekend 20 - 22 May 2011

If you were tantalised by Treguier, found Denmark dazzling and Enkhuizen electrifying, were energised by Edinburgh and bowled over by Barcelona ?

Then you cannot miss Fabulous Falmouth !

FALMOUTH Cornwall (Kernow), Great Briton

After Sydney and Rio, the third largest natural deep water harbour in the world. Since the beginning of maritime adventuring Falmouth has been strategically vital to sailors as the last port before the treacherous Western Approaches and the mighty Atlantic Ocean. And even today Falmouth lives for the sea.

The weekend will begin on Friday with registration and a race organised by the Royal Cornwall Yacht Club. It will finish on Sunday after an afternoon cruise around the winding creeks of the unspoilt river Fal, Truro river and stunningly beautiful Carrick Roads.

In between we have Cornish food, ale and shanties in the National Maritime museum, a visit to Pendennis Shipyard - Superyacht builders and the Gala Dinner at R.C.Y.C. The A.G.M is at Pendennis Castle, with freedom to explore and followed by lunch at Mylor harbour.

You might be planning a longer stay ? For details of the extensive sailing calendar, moorings, local sailing knowledge or info on the land based attractions of Cornwall, contact Geoff.

If coming without the boat The Falmouth Hotel is probably the best place to stay. Situated on the sea front, with lovely grounds, leisure facilities and within walking distance of the station, it is nearest to most of our venues, with rooms of all grades of comfort, self-catering cottages and budget apartments. 0044 (0)1326 312671

The Falmouth Hotel is popular so we advise you book early. If you contact the hotel be sure you tell them you are with the S&S Association party. Or contact Wendy for more information & other options

Travel to Falmouth.

By Car - good roads all the way.

By train - Main line to Truro change for Falmouth
(don't forget the excellent Night Sleeper)

By coach. By aeroplane - Newquay Airport is closest. If you are not hiring a car we can arrange transport from Newquay Airport (or from Truro) if there are no convenient links. Contact Wendy for info.
