

YOU ARE INVITED TO the International Weekend & AGM 2011 FALMOUTH

Cornwall (Kernow), Great Briton
20th 21st 22nd MAY

If you were tantalised by Treguier, found Denmark dazzling and Enkhuizen electrifying were energised by Edinburgh and bowled over by Barcelona?
Then you cannot miss Fabulous Falmouth!

After Sydney and Rio, the 3rd largest natural deep water harbour in the world. Since the beginning of maritime adventuring Falmouth has been strategically vital to sailors, being on the threshold of the treacherous Western Approaches and the mighty Atlantic Ocean. And even today Falmouth lives for the sea

£145 per person cost includes:- Welcome pack with commemorative polo-shirt, traditional Furniss Cornish biscuits and the sailors drink, Plymouth Gin. Friday:- Friendly race in Falmouth Bay. Cornish Cream Tea `Freedom` of the National Maritime

Rodda's
CORNISH
CLOTTED CREAM

Museum with pasty supper and local ale, shanty singers and more. Saturday:-

Pendennis Shipyard – superyacht builders –

tour and refreshments Gala Dinner, RCYC reception cocktails and wines with the meal.

Sunday:- Morning coffee and `freedom` of Pendennis Castle and/ or AGM. Classic coach to the historic Mylor Harbour for reception drink and roast lunch. Guided cruise around the winding creeks of the unspoilt River Fal, Truro River and stunningly beautiful Carrick Roads.

Cornwall is such a fabulous place it is worth extending your stay. Geoff and Wendy are willing to organise another day, or two? Maybe you would like to see the Lizard Point and St. Michael's Mount from the land? Or the Eden Project the largest greenhouse in the world? Or any of the wonderful gardens Cornwall is famous for?

Planning a longer stay by boat? For details of the extensive sailing calendar, discounted moorings and local sailing knowledge. Just ask
