About Lagos

As far as touristy towns go, Lagos (lah-goosh) has got the lot. It lies along the bank of the Rio Bensafirim, with 16th-century walls enclosing the old town's pretty, cobbled streets and picturesque plazas and churches. Beyond these lies a modern, but not overly unattractive, modern sprawl. The town's good restaurants and range of fabulous beaches nearby add to the allure. With every activity under the sun (literally) on offer, plus a pumping nightlife, it's not surprising that people of all ages are drawn here. In season, with all the crowds and action, the town can feel hectic and claustrophobic.

Aside from its hedonistic appeal, Lagos has historical clout, having launched many naval excursions during Portugal's extraordinary Age of Discoveries.

Hotels

The centre for the Welcome Event and the Gala Dinner is Hotel Tivoli located just 5 minutes' walk from the historical centre of the city, next to the marina, the beach and seven golf courses. The other recommended hotel is the Marina Club Lagos Resort, also very close to the Marina..Read more on the hotel page.

The Marina

Since the opening of the Marina, in 1994 it has been distinguished with the Euromarina Anchor Award, the European Blue Flag, The Yacht Harbor Association's 5 Gold Anchors and IMCI's 5 Blue Star Marina, is proud to be the centre of the sailing activities of this S&S AGM. Read more about the marina and other sailing information on the Marina page.

Who is invited?

Of course all members of the Association are invited and we hope to see a majority of the membership congregate in Lagos. But do remember, the invitation goes further. As usual we extend the invitation to your crew and to all friends of the Association. And again this year we go further - we offer one year free membership to any non-member attending with his/her S&S yacht in Lagos. We encourage all members to invite all the owners of S&S yachts they know to come to Lagos and share the magic of the S&S Association AGM.
